

NEW MACMILLAN PUBLICATIONS

New Fiction

By the Author of "Mr. Waddington of Wyck"

ANNE SEVERN AND THE FIELDINGS

By May Sinclair

You may know people for years and yet not fathom their feelings or realize their views. Anne Severn had known the Fieldings, father, mother and three sons, for a very long time, yet misunderstandings grew up between them which formed a drama of many motifs, love, honor, pity and remorse. $2.00

Eden Phillpotts repeats his success with "The Grey Room" in

THE RED REDMAYNES

By Eden Phillpotts

Mark Brendon, a detective of repute, while on a fishing excursion in Dartmoor, is called on by a young Mrs. Pendean to help unravel the mystery of the murder of her husband. In the unfolding of the plot there is much that is dramatic, while the rivalry of Mrs. Pendean's two lovers adds a strong element of romance. $2.00

A new romance of Dartmoor.

CHILDREN OF MEN

By Eden Phillpotts

The long struggle between the husband's stubborn suspicion and the wife's proud innocence creates a series of tense situations in which Phillpotts is at his strongest. $2.00

ROLAND WHATELY

By Alec Waugh

The hero stumbles and blunders his way through adolescence to maturity, but he is convincing, for his story is told with sound sense and discretion as well as with sharp wit and with poetry. $2.00

THE OPTIMIST

By E. M. Delafield

The grandiose, pompous Canon of the Church of England has his difficulties maintaining his attitude of optimism against his children's direct, ironical views. $2.00

AN INSTRUMENT OF THE GODS AND OTHER STORIES OF THE SEA

By Lincoln Colcord

Here are nine strange tales of ships and men who sail from Sandy Hook to Singapore—tales of the flotsam and jetsam that drift about the eastern ports—victims of the remorseless will of the sea, and the irony of the gods. $2.00

THE GATES OF OLIVET

By Lucille Borden

All the grace, mystery and beauty of the Catholic religion is woven into this novel of a girl whose memory and earthly bonds of love being broken, is gradually imbued with an other-world spirituality. $2.00

New Fiction

A New Novel by Alice Brown

OLD CROW

Some people accept life; others, like Old Crow and his spiritual prototype, John Raven, are bewildered and crushed by its cruelty. The story of how Raven, through his infinite love and pity for two baffled New England souls, finds, like Old Crow, the key to life, is told with profound art and sympathy. $2.00

Ernest Poole's new success

MILLIONS

A dream-ship laden with millions suddenly sails into the view of Madge Cable and her relatives. The new hopes raised, the conflict of feelings aroused and the many other attendant problems form a delightfully absorbing story. $1.75

The novel of an American business man.

A MORE HONORABLE MAN

By Arthur Somers Roche

The history of Jameson Willoughby, a man who never dreamed small, and whose success seemed infallible and unending. Around this unique hero, Mr. Roche, with his usual zest and charm, weaves a swiftly moving plot. $2.00

SUPPORT

By Margaret Ashmun

Constance Moffatt courageously grapples with the problem of a woman's ethical right to accept alimony. Her efforts to overcome the prejudices of family opinion are portrayed with great sympathy. $2.00

QUEST

By Helen R. Hull

An extraordinarily penetrating study of the development of the girl Jean against an increasingly sordid and violent background as her family moves toward disintegration. $2.00

THE THREE FIRES

By Amelia Josephine Burr

Fire, the destroyer; fire the purifier; and fire, the warm comfort of the home are the three fires which flame up around the passionate story of Nila, a young Hindoo girl of Ceylon. Swift in action, romantic in character, and exotic in setting, it is a novel of breathless and intense interest. $1.75

THE UNBIDDEN GUEST

By Silvio Villa

With a style poetic or terse according to the mood portrayed, Mr. Villa describes scenes in the life of a young Italian and invokes the emotions with an eloquence only possible by an author of Latin temperament. $2.00

The

Tudor

Shakespeare

A happy answer to the demand that "the bard should step down from the remote grandeur of the library shelf to the coziness of the pocket of the man in the street." In 39 vols., each $1.00. Set $39.00

For the busy general reader who wishes to refresh and repair his faded or fragmentary conceptions of the great adventure of mankind.

A SHORT HISTORY OF THE WORLD

By H. G. WELLS

AUTHOR OF THE OUTLINE OF HISTORY

"This Short History of the World is meant to be read straightforwardly almost as a novel is read. It gives in the most general way an account of our present knowledge of history shorn of elaboration and complications. It has been amply illustrated and everything has been done to make it vivid and clear." From the Preface. $4.00

The

Macmillan

Seventy-Five Cent Library

Admirably satisfies an increasing demand for good books at a popular price. It contains titles in fiction, essays, science, sport—all the books you have always heard about and wanted to own.

Golden Treasury of Songs and Lyrics

By F. T. Palgrave

The best of poetry and the best of art in this handsome new leather-bound illustrated edition. $3.50

The Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam

Translated by Edward Fitzgerald. Edited, with introduction and notes by R. A. Nicholson, Litt.D., Lecturer in Persian in the University of Cambridge. Illustrated with eight beautiful color plates and many other Persian designs. $1.75

A new poem, new plays, and some beautiful new editions

RIGHT ROYAL

By John Masefield

The glorification of the steeplechase in a new edition with four color plates and many head and tail pieces by Cecil Aldin, the well-known English artist whose color prints of "The Fallowfield Hunt" and "The Old Inns of England" are universal favorites. $2.50

THE CROCK OF GOLD

By James Stephens

A new edition of this widely loved book with unusual and distinctive illustrations in color and in black and white by Wilfred Jones. $2.50

Pulitzer prize biography.

A Daughter of the Middle Border

and its companion volume,

A Son of the Middle Border

By Hamlin Garland

The Pulitzer prize of $1,000 for the best biography of the year 1921 was awarded by Columbia University to Mr. Garland for "A Daughter of the Middle Border," which completes the story begun in "A Son of the Middle Border," an epic of the Middle West. Two volumes boxed, $4.00.

Florence Nightingale

By Edith Gittings Reid

The dramatist has caught marvelously in a few puissant scenes, the force and fineness in the character of the miracle nurse of Crimea. $1.25

Krindlesyke

By Wilfrid Gibson

In a shepherd's hut on a wind-swept mountain is staged this drama of love, disloyalty and tragic disillusionment. $1.75

By the author of "He Who Gets Slapped."

The Waltz of the Dogs

By Leonid Andreyev

In this play Andreyev shows how a strong, well-balanced systematic man is affected by great disenchantment resulting from disappointed love. $1.50

For Sale at All Bookstores or from

64-66 Fifth Avenue

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY

New York